Charles W. Shaver, born Eldorado, Kansas, 1890. He is the son of German Palatines who migrated to Schoharie and Cobleskill, N. Y. in 1711; then to Ohio, Indiana and Kansas; homesteading following the Civil War on Saline River, 8 miles southeast of Lincoln, Kansas.

William Charles Shaver, Epsilon '15

As an undergraduate at Kansas State College, he was president one year of "Architects" Club, K. S. C. He was president of "Engineer Association," Engineering Division; art editor of the college yearbook, Royal Purple, 1915, and active in Sigma Tau. He has served Kansas State College since his graduation as chairman of board K. S. C. Building Association.

Mr. Shaver has been a member of the American Institute of Architects since 1922 and has served as President of the Kansas state chapter five terms. He was appointed by the Governor of Kansas in 1949 to serve a 4 year term as chairman of the Kansas Registration & Examining Board of Architects.

Their firm is well known in the midwest. Since the year 1944 they have been the architects for 253 buildings, 63 of which have been churches. Their 11 staff members are divided into special departments such as design, structural engineering, mechanical engineering, and all of the building projects take their course through the office in "line production" methods. This method greatly raises the efficiency of the firm.

Mr. Shaver's civic activities constitute a long and imposing testimonial of the high repute in which he is held by his fellow citizens of Salina, Kansas.

One of Mr. Shaver most noteworthy recent acts was the gift of $5,000 to the department of architecture of Kansas State College to establish scholarships for students enrolled in architecture.
